

William L. Gibbons
1591 Harbert Avenue
Memphis, TN 38104

September 2016 to Present

Director, Public Safety Institute (PSI) at University of Memphis
President & CEO, Memphis Shelby Crime Commission

January 2011 to August 2016

Commissioner, Department of Safety and Homeland Security
State of Tennessee, Bill Haslam Governor

1996 to 2010

District Attorney General
Shelby County, Tennessee

1994-1996

Commissioner
Shelby County Commission

1990-1994

Councilman
Memphis City Council

1981-1996

Partner
Evans and Petree Law Firm, Memphis, TN

1979-1981

Special Policy Assistant
Governor Lamar Alexander, State of Tennessee

BA and JD from Vanderbilt University

Gibbons has also served on the Board of Directors for the National District Attorneys Association (NDAA), the American Prosecutors Research Institute (APRI), as well as the U. S. Department of Justice's Coordinating Council on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

Gibbons is married to United States Court of Appeals Judge Julia S. Gibbons. They have two children.